Please refer to the Company’s Annual Corporate Governance Report filed on January 11, 2016.

4) What are the Company's procedures for handling complaints by employees concerning illegal (including corruption) and unethical behaviour? Explain how employees are protected from retaliation.

Under the Company’s Policy and Procedures for Handling Complaints and Whistleblowing, below is the procedure for handling complaints:

a. Written complaints may be submitted to the Human Resources Officer, in hard copy or via email. Complaints may also be submitted through a Silent Whistle telephone hotline or website that will be received by a third-party contractor specifically engaged to provide the hotline services or by an internal person specifically designated to receive hotline calls. To maintain anonymity, the complainant need not leave his/her name or other personal information.

b. The complaint will be reviewed by the designated Silent Whistle Working Group who will thereafter determine the complaints or cases to be directed to the relevant department heads or to Corporate Risk and Investigation for investigation. The results of investigation shall be reported to the designated Silent Whistle Working Group for further action. Thereafter, a quarterly summary report will be presented to the Audit and Risk Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Company.

Complaints are promptly and thoroughly investigated to verify its accuracy and to ensure that no malicious or unfounded complaints or reports will be entertained. The Company takes seriously those filing complaints or reports knowing them to be untrue or unfounded.

In no event will there be any retaliation against anyone for reporting an activity that he or she in good faith believes to be a violation of any law, rule or regulation. Any supervisor or other employee intimidating or imposing sanctions on an employee for reporting a Complaint will be disciplined, which may include termination of employment. Employees who believe that they have been retaliated against by the Company, its employees, contractors, subcontractors or agents, for providing information to or assisting in an investigation or proceeding...
conducted by a governmental authority or a person with supervisory authority over the employee (or another employee who has the authority to investigate or terminate misconduct) in connection with conduct that the employee reasonably believes constitutes a violation of rule or law, may seek redress through governmental agencies.

L. CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY INITIATIVES

Discuss any initiative undertaken or proposed to be undertaken by the Company.

The Company, through its wholly-owned indirect subsidiary, has established a Foundation through which the social responsibility initiatives of the Company and its subsidiaries will be undertaken.

For the corporate social responsibility activities of the Company for the previous years, please refer to the Company’s Annual Corporate Governance Report filed on January 11, 2016.

The Company continued with its commitment to support the health and well-being of children at Bahay Aruga in Parañaque City by sponsoring monthly feeding programs and the rehabilitation of its facilities. Relevant Business Units take turns each month to take part in this activity. In June 2016, 20 selected children from Bahay Aruga were treated to a free play, festive lunch and cooking class at DreamPlay, an interactive entertainment concept and indoor attraction where DreamWorks Animation characters come “alive” and allow children and adults alike to Play, Create and Learn.

A medical activity was also held in December 2016, where 230 children were selected from Bahay Aruga and a public school in the city of Parañaque and were given Pneumovax 23, a basic pneumonia vaccine.

The Company has been passionate about protecting the environment. In July and August 2016, the Company participated in tree planting activities and the clean-up of coastal areas. A blood donation drive has also been organized in cooperation with the Philippine National Red Cross. In September 2016, employees volunteered their time for a project, “Building Dreams”, aimed at providing shelter to 1,000 impoverished families presently residing at Gawad Kalinga Manggahan Kawayan in Parañaque City through the construction of 600 new houses to be built within the next 3 to 5 years. This project was carried out in cooperation with the Gawad Kalinga Community Development Foundation, Inc., a Philippine-based movement that aims to end poverty for 5 million families by 2024.

In line with the current initiatives of the Philippine government, the Foundation will be focusing on the Health pillar. Currently, studies are being conducted to determine the feasibility of constructing medical facilities and/or structures. These projects will be done in cooperation with the relevant government department.
