FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CITY OF DREAMS MANILA WILL SOON OPEN THE GARAGE
WITH BANDAI NAMCO'S VR ZONE AND GASTRONOMIC GALORE

September 21, 2018 - City of Dreams Manila will soon introduce a VR zone and food park that puts into spotlight a new generation entertainment. The Garage will bring top of class VR technology operated by Bandai Namco, a renowned and leading video game development company hailing from Japan, and a curated selection of food and beverage trucks and trailers.

Situated in a 2,714-square meter air-conditioned space marked with striking graffiti artworks and modern industrial interiors, The Garage is designed by award-winning Paris-based creative design agency, Malherbe Design. The new facility promises to deliver a startling realistic experience with virtual reality games combined with gustatory delights offered by some of the hippest and contemporary food trucks and trailers that will cater to a 563-seating capacity. The Garage, situated at the upper ground towards the end of The Shops at the Boulevard, will be the latest unique entertainment facility at the luxury integrated resort after DreamPlay, the only DreamWorks-inspired play space in the world.

Set to be a thrilling attraction for millennials and family outings, The Garage will feature an exhilarating line up of games at the VR Zone in partnership with Bandai Namco: Mario Kart Arcade GP VR, Hospital Escape Terror, and Ski Rodeo alongside enticing gastronomic delights which have been carefully curated to redefine casual dining, consisting of: Japanese, Filipino, American, Vietnamese, Mexican and Italian fare; a chocolate shop; and separate bars for coffee, juices and spirits.

Food tenants set to whet the crowd's appetite are: Hokkaido Ramen Santouka, Pink's Hotdog, Little Flour, Farmacy, Katsusora, El Chupacabra, Pizza Grigliata, Choco18, Juiced and The Roaster.
