“We are glad to partner with City of Dreams Manila, and together provide to its loyal patrons the privilege of enjoying Mabuhay Miles in their travels to any destination in our fast expanding routes – in North and Southeast Asia, Australia, North America, Middle East and Europe,” Bautista said.

Dream Rewards Club members can earn points when staying, dining, playing, and shopping at City of Dreams Manila. A premier leisure and entertainment destination, the integrated luxury resort is home to three internationally-renowned hotels, over 20 world-class restaurants, and premium shopping brands.

Every 600 Dream Rewards points can be converted into 500 Mabuhay Miles for Sapphire and Gold members; while Ruby, Jade, and Dragon members can convert their 500 Dream Rewards points to 500 Mabuhay Miles. The converted Mabuhay Miles will be credited after 48 hours from the date of request. To convert their Dream Rewards points to Mabuhay Miles, patrons must be Mabuhay Miles members or enroll in the program through Mabuhay Miles’ website, and must present both their Dream Rewards and Mabuhay Miles membership cards at the Dream Rewards counter.
