DreamPlay

DreamPlay, the only DreamWorks-inspired interactive play space in the world, is holding the “Summer Dream Workshop” from May 6 to 11, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Open to children ages 6 to 13, the six-day singing and dancing workshop aims to let kids hone and discover their skills in performing arts, boost their self-confidence, and at the same time, make new friends throughout the program.

A fitting educational yet fun-filled activity for kids this summer season, the singing workshop includes exploring various vocal exercises, the application of proper singing techniques, and concepts on basic stage performance; while the dance workshop involves lectures and exercises on the creative process of dance, choreography, improvisation, as well as different types of routines and techniques in Jazz Funk, Modern Dance and Hip Hop.

As a culminating activity of the workshop, participants are set to perform live on May 11, at 2 p.m. at DreamPlay, where they can get the chance to become a DreamPlay Ambassador or get special awards. Apart from the kids’ individual performances, exciting production numbers are also lined up, where they will be joined on stage by DreamWorks’ Trolls characters Poppy and Branch and The Dreamers, DreamPlay’s talented in-house performers.

The Garage VR Zone and food park

The freshly-launched “VR Swarm Shooting Galaga Fever,” a virtual reality shooting experience is the latest VR Zone activity on property, produced by Japan’s Bandai Namco Amusement Inc., one of the world’s leading video digital entertainment development companies. This newest activity is situated at the walkway of The Shops at the Boulevard at the upper ground, leading to The Garage VR Zone and food park.

Celebrating its 38th anniversary, “Galaga” is considered a classic video game masterpiece and one of the most popular arcade video games since it was first released in the 1980s. Taking on a new and exhilarating format as “VR Swarm Shooting Galaga Fever,” the game is set to deliver an action-packed, multi-sensory, and startling hyper-realistic experience through the top-of-class VR technology of Bandai Namco group.

Up to two participants can play the latest VR attraction. Players will be provided with VR goggles and a VR gun, as they play atop an elevator that will take them 150 meters into the atmosphere, where they have to shoot down as many swarming alien attackers from Galaga as they can. The battle ends if the elevator crashes down or if the players fail to evade and be hit even once by the Giant Galaga's beam.

The Garage also features another new thrilling VR experience, the Winged Bicycle. The two VR experiences by Bandai Namco group are the latest addition to The Garage's popular VR activities: Mario Kart Arcade GP VR, Ski Rodeo and Hospital Escape Terror.

Winged Bicycle, which can be played by up to four individuals, enables players to experience the thrill of flight through riding the pedal-powered Winged Bicycle. Players have to pedal with their legs, and fly over soaring mountain surfaces, plunge through waterfalls, and dodge rocky cliffs along the way in order to reach the floating castle within a certain time limit to win.

VR enthusiasts and their families and friends also get to enjoy The Garage's latest gastronomic offering – Chippe Shop at its food park, as the latest addition to its carefully curated food trucks and trailers: Hokkaido Ramen Santouka, Katsu Sora, Pink's Hotdog, Little Flour, El Chupacabra, Pizza Grigliata, Pharmacy, Chocol8, The Roaster, and Juiced.

Chip Shoppe offers the classic British favorite dish – fish and chips alongside an assortment of savory and sweet golden fried items coated in signature batter, fried to crispy perfection, and served with fries and a choice of dip. There's no need to visit Ol' Big Ben to get a taste of London's GDB (golden brown and delicious) chips, diners simply need to head to The Chip Shoppe for an authentic experience.

The Chip Shoppe menu showcases COD Save the Queen - signature battered cod fish, Garage Fried Chicken, Signature Corned Dog and other fried items such as Calamari, Coco Prawn Fritters, Fisherman's Basket, Mozzarella Poppers, Spam Fritters and Onion Rings. Choices of chips also include Skin on Fries, Wedges and Curly Fries. The sweet stuff consists of Banana Fritters and Sticky Toffee.

On Fridays and Saturdays, from 7 to 10 p.m., families can enjoy live music from young and upcoming artists Jex de Castro on May 10, 17, 24 and 31; Pia Magana on May 11; and Jeric Medina on May 18 and 25, at no cover charge.
