November 26, 2021 -- Just in time for the holiday festivities, Nobu Manila at City of Dreams sought-after Sunday Brunch returns exclusively this December, inviting diners to rediscover the indulgence of the new-style Japanese cuisine globally popularized by the legendary Chef Nobu Matsuhisa. Elevating the renowned 'Nobu experience,' Nobu Manila is taking diners into a different culinary journey each Sunday of the month with varying menu highlights from December 5, 2021 to January 2, 2022.

Besides indoor dining, the restaurant's tropical-themed patio and floating cabanas surrounded by cooling waterworks and lush garden, makes Nobu Manila also the perfect al fresco venue for a leisurely Sunday brunch affair for families with children and seniors, regardless of vaccination status, in accordance with prevailing Alert 2 dining guidelines.

For variety, different rice and specialty dishes are offered weekly to complement the salads and soups.

Diners choose their preferred dishes from the display counter, which chefs prepare fresh from the kitchen, and are individually served on mini plates and lacquer masu (Japanese cups) or in a family style plating should guests prefer sharing. From an a la carte menu, diners can add to their meal dishes such as: wagyu pastrami with ube shokupan sliders, black cod miso on butter lettuce, wagyu sliders with bao buns, and grilled baby octopus with anticucho sauce, to name a few, as they enjoy their choice mocktail, chilled juice, soda, tea or coffee that are included in the brunch price.

Nobu's renowned innovative cuisine also introduces touches of local flavors, and puts a spotlight on Filipino-inspired dishes, including Nobu-style wagyu sisig, Nobu-style kurobuta pork sisig, and Nobu-style salmon "tinapa" (smoked fish) fried rice, which are alternately offered alongside Nobu classic dishes that meld Japanese and Peruvian flavors.
