MELCO CHAIRMAN AND CEO LAWRENCE HO VISITS PSG STATION HOSPITAL IN MALACAÑANG PARK

July 3, 2023 - Melco Resorts & Entertainment Ltd (Melco) Chairman and CEO Lawrence Ho recently visited the Presidential Security Group (PSG) Station Hospital in Malacañang Park, the P1.2 billion state-of-the-art hospital built by Melco Resorts (Philippines) Foundation Corporation (MRP Foundation), the charitable arm of the luxury integrated resort City of Dreams Manila.

PSG Commander Brigadier General Ramon Zagala welcomed Mr. Ho, who was accompanied by Melco Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Geoffrey Davis, Melco Executive Director and MRP Foundation Chairman and President Clarence Yuk Man Chung, City of Dreams Manila Property President Geoff Andres, and MRP Foundation Vice President and President of Premium Leisure and Amusement Inc. Armin Raquel Santos. BGen. Zagala also presented the guests with a PSG memento.

The 9,000-square meter PSG Station Hospital, a project of the Department of National Defense and PSG, was completed in October 2021 with the support of Philippine Gaming Corporation (PAGCOR), under which City of Dreams Manila is a casino licensee. It is one of the few health facilities in the country that boasts of the latest Multi-place Hyperbaric Oxygen Chamber, which is capable to boost the body's natural healing processes and in the speedy treatment of various medical indications.
