Re: Comments on News Article "Belle to bring in 3 hotel brands"

Gentlemen:

We refer to your letter dated 5 August 2013 asking for the comments of Melco Crown (Philippines) Resorts Corporation ("Company") on the news article "Belle to bring in 3 hotel brands" which was posted in the philSTAR.net on 5 August 2013 and in particular, the excerpt below that you quoted in your letter dated 5 August 2013:

MANILA, Philippines - The $1.3-billion Belle Grande Manila Bay, the second integrated casino complex that will open in the Entertainment City gaming hub, will bring in three top-notch hotel brands in the Philippines.

The agreement for five and six-star hotel brands will be finalized in September, an executive said.

'It will be two to three hotel brands because we have more than 900 rooms,' Belle Corp. vice-chairman Willy Ocier said in an interview.

Ocier said there is a good chance that Melco's hotels in Macau will be brought to the Philippines.

We confirm that SM Group's Belle Corporation has been cooperating with MCE Leisure (Philippines) Corporation, a subsidiary ("MCE Leisure") of Melco Crown (Philippines) Resorts Corporation ("MCP" or the "Company") (PSE: MCP), for the development of an integrated casino, hotel, retail and entertainment resort in the Entertainment City complex in Manila (the "Project"). In connection with the Project, we confirm that while there are plans to bring in several hotel brands for the Project, such plans are not yet final. Hence, appropriate disclosures will be made to the Exchange as soon as all hotel branding, licensing and related arrangements that will be operating in the Project are finalized and all definitive agreements with the respective counterparties are signed.

MCP is a subsidiary of Melco Crown Entertainment Limited which is a developer and owner of casino gaming and entertainment resort facilities in Asia.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

MELCO CROWN (PHILIPPINES)
RESORTS CORPORATION
